London Dispatches

LONDON, April [illegible].—The counter case presented at Geneva in behalf of the British Government and which was laid before the House of Lords last night, was printed this evening. It says the extension of a neutral in time of war in the wider views presented in the case of the American Government would be one of perpetual and unremitting anxiety, surrounded by dangers and harassed by a crowd of new obligations which nothing but sleepless vigilance could satisfy, whilst the lapse of even one subordinate officer would be visited with heavy national penalties. Private commerce would be subjected to inquisition and incessant supervision. Individuals would be racked by spies and informers, the trade of belligerents would be fettered and the hospitalities of the country guarded with impossible precautions.

There is little doubt but that the announcement of the London Telegraph, both editorially and in its correspondence, in which it says that the relations between France and Germany are in a critical condition, is a pure invention. The S[illegible] [illegible] special says of the story and of the report [illegible] appearing in the organ at [illegible] that they are gross exaggerations.

It is said that Thiers in a conversation with leading commercial gentlemen stated that when the Assembly met he would insist upon the duty on raw material and [illegible] obligatory service in the army. This policy is in direct opposition to that of the Committee on Budget and the army organization.

The Government of Versailles has issued orders to commanders of troops on the frontier to exercise extraordinary vigilance to prevent any movement which may be made on French territory in sympathy with the Carlists.

Forty seven thousand women of Alsace and Lorraine have addressed a petition to Bismarck asking that their fathers and sons may be exempt from service in the German army for a few years hence.

At the Keokuk (Iowa) city election, April 1st, the regular Republican nominees were elected throughout, defeating the Citizens ticket. H. W. Rathbert was re-elected Mayor by [illegible] majority, a gain over last spring's election of over 190.

A rhinoceros was lately added to a menagerie in Cincinnati which was imported direct from the Island of Sumatra. Its original cost was $1,000 in gold and when landed in Cincinnati, the cost had amounted to $11,[illegible] in currency.

Two Democrats of Peterboro agreed if Straw was elected Governor of New Hampshire to purchase [illegible] pounds of fresh fish and peddle them in the street, one trundling them along in a go-cart while the other blew a horn and took the money.

Theodore Tilton's Golden Age, at the end of a notice of the Rev. [illegible] Barrett's book, "New Views of Hell," exclaims: "Save us from the God who damns!" To which the New York World very pertinently says: "What already?"

Mount Vesuvius is again in a violent state of eruption. A column of flame shoots several hundred feet above the crater. Stones, ashes and cinders fall in dense showers around the summit. Tourists are hastening to Naples to witness the spectacle.

A grand soldiers meeting is to be held at the Cooper Institute, New York, on the 2[illegible] instant, to aid the fund for erecting a monument to Major General George H. Thomas. General Burnside is chairman of the committee having charge of the movement.

The United States jury's indictments against 11 persons said to belong to a New York whisky and tobacco ring accused of defrauding the Government of more than $[illegible],000,000, are believed to be the joint work of Gen. Butler and Gen. Grant.

The Madrid journals all publish articles censuring the Government of Chili for having prevented Spanish vessels from unloading their cargoes at the port of Valparaiso under pretext that a truce and not a peace exists between that country and Spain.

A Chicago widow, of boarding house education, acquired no less than $1[illegible],000 of the relief funds by appearing under various guises and several different places of abode. She had gathered seven stoves in one locality and in another an immense number of blankets.

It was said by a looker on that when President Grant introduced his Cabinet to the Japanese Embassy there was no hand shaking. "The Americans snapped their heads in the usual jerky way, but the Japanese gave them the graceful salaam of the East. An Oriental only knows how to bow."

The Treasury Department has made an important decision under the law of July 14, 1870, in relation to the importation of goods to inland towns. It will hereafter only be necessary to show a bill of lading in order to make an entry of the goods. This will do away with much unnecessary trouble and delay.

Horace Greeley has induced a large number of people to subscribe for his Weekly Tribune on the ground that he was an advocate of Protection. Now that he has turned Free Trader and obtained money under false pretences from thousands, [illegible] will have the honesty to return to these deluded persons their subscriptions.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company is making a survey for a narrow gauge road from Julesburg up the South Fork of the Platte river to Greeley, Denver and Golden City to connect with the Colorado Central Railroad which they are extending to Central City. This gives the Union Pacific Railroad an independent line into the heart of California.

Washington Intelligence says that in consequence of the representations of the British Minister, President Grant has consented to co-operate with the British Government in the suppression of the slave trade in the Persian Gulf by a treaty with Britain. The Imaum of Muscat exercises the right of transporting domestic slaves within his own territory. The first United States vessel of war which visits Zanzibar or Muscat will ask a termination of these provisions of the treaty.

A Washington dispatch of the 6th states that the proposition to reduce the tax on manufactured tobacco to 20 cents per pound will be resisted by manufacturers who voted against it in the Committee and will make strong opposition in the House. It is understood that both Secretary Boutwell and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue are opposed to fixing the consolidated tax on whisky at sixty five cents per gallon. In their opinion [illegible] cents is the proper figure. An effort will be made by whisky speculators to get the tax increased to one dollar when the bill comes up for discussion in the House.

The Dominion Parliament opened at Ottawa on the 1[illegible]th inst. The Governor General in a speech opening the session urges measures for the encouragement of immigration, expresses gratification at the union of British Columbia with the Dominion and recommends a consummation of the project for a Pacific Railroad, the improvement of canals and the establishment of direct water communication between the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the Bay of Fundy. In reference to the Washington Treaty he simply calls the attention of Parliament to the fact that so much of the document as can be properly made public will be laid before them.

In the Naval Investigating Committee a few days ago Donald McKay, ship builder, was examined. The evidence went to show that the contract was a good one for the Navy Department. No other witnesses being present the [illegible] was brought up. Secretary Robeson said he was entitled to have the matter closed or proceeded with. Nothing had been proven against him. The charge made against him was more outrageous than had ever been made against any other public officer or private citizen. The public accuser had been allowed the widest range to prove the charges, but he was glad he had had it. He had not proved a single thing against him.

At the reception March 15th, M. Thiers said: "He would not resort to a plebiscite, but that he was not afraid of a direct appeal to the people. The Bonapartists he was not afraid of. He was sure that they could not muster a million and a half of votes. The revolutionists were actually cowed. The country was prosperous and happy, and only too glad for the continuance of the present regime. The relations with Prussia and Italy were most satisfactory. If he were only let alone all would be well." Some one having asked a question about the army, M. Thiers declared that its condition and feeling was all that could be desired. "The army," he said, "is not Bonapartist. I, who live in the midst of camps, know exactly what the army feels."

In the House a bill was introduced and referred to the Committee on Banking suspending the consideration of the three per cent certificates until next January.

The bill incorporating the Salt Lake & Colorado Railroad, and granting the right of way through public lands, was taken up, and the main question was ordered.

Claggett of Montana supported the bill as one rich in results, enabling others besides the Mormons to obtain a foothold in Utah. He said that the Utah Legislature granted the Mormons every foot of land and every valuable franchise in the Territory.

Hooper of Utah denied the assertions of Claggett, and an angry altercation ensued.

In the Senate, Sumner gave notice that when the Amnesty bill comes up he will move a substitute to the supplemental Civil Rights bill.

The Senate Postoffice Committee agreed and reported a Postal Telegraph bill with amendments.

In the House the Committee on Foreign Affairs discussed Peters' resolution relative to the withdrawal of claims for indirect damages from the Alabama claims, but no definite action was taken.

The Senate Territorial Committee are considering the bill to put in motion the courts of Utah.

From London.

LONDON, April 18.—The Daily Telegraph editorially, this morning asserts in decided terms that its statement of a few days since, relating to the precarious condition of the relations between France and Germany, is founded upon undeniable facts. It says: "We deem it our duty to declare as a certain and solemn fact that, upon President Thiers' decision this week depends the fate of France. We are not speaking rhetorically. We measure anxiously these most grave and momentous words. On Monday, the Count Von Arnim, German Ambassador to France, carries his ultimatum to Thiers. The purport of this ultimatum is that Germany sees in the French army bill and speeches of Thiers, menaces of vengeance, and a programme for the eventual repudiation, by France, of her indebtedness to Germany. Bismarck therefore demands that the armaments of France be reduced and the war estimates diminished, or the alternative will be the occupation by German troops of the evacuated French territory, and war if necessary."

POLITICAL NOTES

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, is being very generally named as the proper locality for the assembling of the National Democratic Convention.

The Republican State Convention of Massachusetts declared for the renomination of Grant and recommended Senator Henry Wilson for Vice President.

The Richmond (Va.) Whig asserts that General Grant may possibly be sustained for re-election by the Democrats. It says: "It is not so certain that he cares about the nomination at Philadelphia, and that he will not throw himself into the arms of the great liquor-loving and free-and-easy Democratic party."

One or two soreheaded Republican journals have been censuring the friends of the Administration for reading Tipton & Co. out of the party. The Omaha Tribune informs us that this same Tipton is making Democratic speeches in Nebraska, and is invariably introduced by the editor of one of the Democratic papers in Omaha. So much for reading out of the party.

The Republican State Convention of Pennsylvania indorsed Grant and instructed its delegates to the National Convention to vote for his renomination, declared for the protective policy and denounced land grants. General Hartranft was nominated for Governor, Ulysses Mercer for Supreme Judge, Harrison Allen for Auditor, and Lemuel Todd and Harry White for Congressmen at large.

A meeting of the Democratic National Committee is called for the 8th of May at the residence of August Belmont in New York. It has been urged, says the World of the 7th instant, to summon the meeting by a private note instead of a published call, in accordance with which the usual letters have been sent out by Belmont. Although the purpose is not specified all interested know that the object is to designate a day for assembling a Democratic National Convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice President.

A dispatch from New York to the San Francisco press states that Mr. Greeley has defined his political programme more specifically in the Tribune. It is this: "If there be two Republican tickets and one Democratic in the field, he will support the stronger of the former. If the campaign hinges on protection versus free trade, he will support protection. Finally if only the two tickets that have a chance for success are Republican, he will support the one best calculated to promote purity of legislation and administration. The Tribune will not be an organ, and will issue no campaign editions, whoever the candidates may be."

FURTHER EVIDENCE OF SKILL.

A Pea Successfully Extracted from the Ear, after having been imbedded against the Drum of the Ear for Eight Months

PORTLAND, April 8, 1872.

To the Public:

I hereby certify to the skill of Dr. Aborn in the treatment of my son. In August last he got a large pea into his ear. Physicians were applied to without success. The pea soon caused inflammation, and a fungus growth spread over the pea and filled up the entire ear, and of late a bloody discharge oozed from the ear and I became greatly alarmed about his perilous condition. After satisfying myself that Dr. Aborn was a skillful surgeon in all such cases, I applied to him on Wednesday last, with my son, and placed him under his care. He destroyed the fungus growth so as to make a passage back to the pea, and on the fourth day he succeeded in removing all the fungus growth and disease of the ear. Then by the aid of his scientific instruments we could plainly see the pea imbedded against the drum of the ear. The pea was removed the same evening, without pain. The hearing in that ear, which was destroyed, is now by his treatment restored so that he can hear a watch tick. Only for the timely aid of the skill of Dr. Aborn I feel sure that my son would have lost his life. It was through the advice of Capt. Pease that I applied to Dr. Aborn, so I give this [illegible] [illegible]

Another Cure of a Chronic Disease of the Stomach, Liver and Nervous System of Ten Years' Standing

TO THE PUBLIC.—I feel it my duty to make the following statement of facts in my case for the benefit of those who are similarly afflicted. For ten years I have been afflicted with Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and a Nervous Disease. My left arm was partially paralyzed, and a general depression of the whole system. Restless nights, almost entirely unfit for business. Through the advice of Jackson Powell of Powell's Valley, I was induced to apply to Dr. Aborn, and after two weeks treatment, I consider myself cured. In fact I feel like a new man. Such wonderful change has been produced by his successful mode of treatment. I have found the Doctor kind hearted and charitable. I reside at Sandy, across from Powell's valley.

Temperance Reform—The Subject from Another View

Th[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] intemperance [illegible] prohibitory and penal legislation [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] responsi[illegible] subject him to restraint and [illegible] [illegible] and moral suasion. Th[illegible] persevering avoidance of this is a striking feature in all anti-liquor agitation and legislation. It treats the drinker as an innocent man sinned against by having temptation set before him. It assumes that every person would be correct and useful if not exposed to temptation by the selling of liquor, and therefore hat if these shall be suppressed everybody will be totally abstinent and therefore will be good, industrious, thrifty, good family providers and so on. And upon this assumption it holds the sellers guilty of all the improvidence, laziness and worthlessness of drinking men, and advocates laws to make them accountable for it.

The writer then proceeds to say that without seeking to plug the vent of this wrath against the seller, its results are not so perfect as to debar us from the consideration of moral and coercive influences to be applied to the drinker. While it might be very nice to have the world so constructed that there should be no temptation to do evil, and so that all should do perfectly right because there was no opportunity to do otherwise, yet this world was not created on that plan. On the contrary, men, women and children are thrown into temptations of various kinds, some of them much worse than the temptation to drink. Yet they are not held accountable. They are expected to resist temptation. That is virtue. And if they yield to it they are held guilty. Is there any reason why the drinker should not be held accountable as well as all other sinners? None can be given.

This is a phase of the question that has been little thought of. It has hardly been considered as yet in the discussion, and yet there is very much in it to be considered. There are hundreds of ways leading into temptation whereby men may destroy themselves. They are expected to resist, to some extent at least, and if they do not they must take the consequences. It is a law of the physical and moral world. It is well said that if a drinker is morally accountable he is a subject for the public guardianship. If he is morally unaccountable, he is a subject for the public's reformatory treatment. A person may be sinned against when he is led into temptation, but unquestionably the greater sin is upon himself for yielding to the vice. He who made man also permitted him to be subjected to temptation, and required him to stand against it. The article from which we have quoted above closes with these observations: "When we come to treat the intemperate as persons to be legally disciplined, whether as accountable or unaccountable beings, we shall make some headway in the reform of intemperance. So long as we are afraid to make this principle of justice the starting point of our coercive legislation, we shall only multiply laws without real progress, as we have done in the past."

A Revolution in Telegraphing

A coming revolution in the telegraph business is rumored. It is said that a new system of transmitting news will soon be put in operation between New York and Washington, the operations of which will make all present systems seem insufferably slow and superfluous. Telegraph machines will be distributed to individuals who by a little practice will acquire the ability to stamp their messages on a slip of perforated paper in the telegraph cypher. This when taken to the general office will be forwarded to its destination, and then by another machine printed before delivery to the person for whom it is intended. The whole time of the writing, transmission and printing of a message of one hundred words will be but one minute and twenty-seven seconds, and messages of that length are to be forwarded at the low rate of twenty cents. The capacity of a telegraph wire in the present system is said to be about 6000 words in ten hours, but by the new process it is claimed 60,000 words an hour can be transmitted on one wire without confusion. One printing machine can transcribe messages at the rate of 3000 words an hour. All the working expenses of the new system are represented to be much less than those of the old one. The cost of a machine for inditing messages will be but two or three dollars, so that any merchant, banker or newspaper office can have one for its own business, and one operator can do as much business with one wire as a hundred operators with a hundred wires now do. The public will rejoice with reason if the practicability of such an improvement of communication shall be established. In that event, says the Boston Advertiser, the mail will soon consist of little besides newspapers and Congressional documents.

Mr Nesmith in his speech at the Dalles Convention, on being elected President of that body, said these among other things:

> We are beset by an unscrupulous enemy whose principles are spoils and whose battle-cry is plunder. Their principal leaders are the renegades and demagogues who have been purged from our own ranks, and who now, in their new sphere, feel the necessity of exhibiting all the hatred for their old friends, and zeal for their new allies, which might characterize a Judas or an Arnold.

Mr Nesmith seems to know how it is himself. Was it zeal for his new allies which caused him to procure the suppression of all Democratic newspapers in this State for "treasonable utterances" in 1862, and to insist at the same time on the arrest of Jo Lane for treason? Was it the proverbial rancor of a renegade which impelled him to out-Herod Herod in the persecution of men whose only offence was that they stood up for simon pure secession Democratic principles? Mr Nesmith talks so much that he has always to be explaining.

For two or three days the dispatches have contained much in regard to the Geneva Conference. Great Britain is [illegible] [illegible] consequence of the shape in which the American case is presented, and seems disposed to "jump the arbitration." [illegible] public opinion of Europe is reflected by its leading journals, [illegible] opinion is certainly in our favor. It seems to be conceded that great wrongs were perpetrated by England under cover of a sham neutrality. The English attitude says the Journal des Debats is that of a bad pleader who doubts his own right. The general opinion, says a Swiss journal, the Basler Nachrichten, is that the American demands were absurd[illegible] [illegible] clear [illegible] but they are justified in the treaty, and the tone is now turning against the British Commissioners.

An article which we copy to-day from the Statesman, giving the statement and affidavit of Mr [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] position of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] conclusion [illegible] the Democratic [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] bility of denial that the Democratic Legislature corruptly stole and wasted $75,000 over and above the sum necessary to secure the Wallamet Falls improvement.

Dispatches which assert the existence of very grave difficulties threatening war between France and Germany are most probably largely sensational. France will not at this time hazard another contest with Germany. It would be madness, and France, though seldom guided by reason, is not so mad as that.

OREGON

Yamhill county is sorely plagued with caterpillars.

Wolves in Marion county are killing the farmers' sheep and injuring the wool market.

Ochoco valley is filling up with a good class of people, and the present year will see quite an addition to the population.

The Odd Fellows of Salem invite all their brethren and the public generally to participate with them on the occasion of their anniversary excursion to Aurora on the 26th inst.

The freighting season between Red Bluff and Jacksonville and Crescent City and Jacksonville (by wagon) has opened, and Southern Oregon begins to show signs of active life.

The Ensign says Mr Thomas P Sheridan of Douglas county has received a pair of pure Angora goats. He shipped them from California by way of Scottsburg. While at Scottsburg two kids died.

The prospects for crops in Yamhill county are very promising. Farmers everywhere are busy with their plows and drills and harrows, and women with rosy cheeks are digging up their flower gardens and beautifying their cozy homes.

And now comes William M Laughead and intimates that he wants the office of County Clerk of Marion county, and proposes to run independent. If he has lived in that county long and thinks he can beat the regular Republican nominee, Laughead is not more appropriately applied to him than blockhead would be.

We inadvertently copied from a late exchange, the other day, that the wheat crop of Oregon for the present year was estimated at 30,000,000 or 1,000,000 bushels. This was just ten times too much. Oregon is a great wheat growing country, but her production of that cereal this year will probably not exceed 3,500,000 bushels.

Snow fell at Baker City on the night of the 6th of April to the depth of six inches. The mountains in that locality are heavily covered with snow. At Auburn four hydraulics are running and doing well, and the camp is considered far from being worked out. White & Co are working on their quartz lode, and the prospect is good for a large yield. A mill will soon be erected at their mine.

"John Burnett," says the Salem Statesman, "came to town yesterday on the freight train at noon. Nobody paid much attention to him till he got to the Union Hotel, when nine men gave him three cheers—nine times three are twenty seven. Twenty seven single 'hurrahs' feebly piped by three times three men were the sum total of John Burnett's enthusiastic (?) welcome (?) by the Democrats of Marion."

Jefferson in Marion county, according to the Statesman, claims the second best water power in the State, Oregon City alone being considered its superior. There are now seven iron Turbine and four flutter wheels in operation, with plenty of power for many more. Mr Metzger is erecting a chair factory 30x60 feet in size, and will soon have it in running order. In fact everything shows that prosperity is in store for the Jeffersonians.

Mary Collins, a woman who owns considerable property in Salem, was declared a common drunkard by the city authorities of that place some two years ago, and therefore being unable to procure her regular doses of benzine, came to Portland. After remaining here for a while and replenishing the city treasury by sundry fines, not getting along at all peaceably with the police, she has returned to the Capital, and is pursuing the same old role of getting drunk every day.

THE TERRITORIES

Nearly two thousand farms were taken and improved in Washington Territory last year by actual settlers.

The same gentleman who shipped the woolen mill machinery from Pierce county, W T, to San Francisco will return in about three months with machinery of a third greater capacity, and build a woolen mill at Tumwater.

Gov Woods calculates that there is one hundred thousand people in Utah, 85 per cent of whom are Mormons, 90 per cent of whom are directly under the influence of their leader, Brigham Young. With this state of things the Governor thinks it would be disastrous for the Territory to be made a State.

A writ of error has been sued out in the case of Watts, sentenced to be hung on the 3d of next month, at Port Townsend, for the murder of Hubbard, and an application made to Judge Jacobs for a supersedeas to stay the execution until the Supreme Court can pass upon the case. The main point relied on by the defense is the jurisdictional question.

We cull the following in relation to the mines near Silver City from the Owyhee Avalanche of the 6th inst: The Empire mine is being put in good working order. Steam hoisting works have been ordered and will be on the mine at an early day this spring. There are about 50 tons of ore on the dump fully equal to the last crushing, which paid $154 per ton. The prospects of the Empire are flattering. The Minnesota is looking splendid and sending out ten tons of $50 ore per day. The owners of the Mahogany are turning out fifteen tons per day, and the Superintendent thinks that in three weeks Mahogany stock will treble its price in the market. The Ida Elmore, which has once been condemned as worthless, turns out ten or twelve tons of good ore daily. The Oro Fino is not being worked extensively, though the rock looks good. The North Oro Fino is improving decidedly. A cross cut through the vein shows five feet in width of splendid looking ore. Superintendent Phelps has commenced straightening the Golden Chariot shaft. The 5th level winze is down 30 feet, showing a two foot vein of good pay ore. There is now about 200 tons of ore in the chute. A rich strike was made a couple of days ago in the Red Jacket tunnel, within twenty feet of the shaft. The vein is nearly a foot in width, and very rich in gold. The vein in the 4th level of the War Eagle, both north and south of the shaft, continues looking splendidly. The War Eagle is one of the best paying and easiest worked mines in camp.

"Mother, where is the man to sleep?" asked a girl of fifteen of her mother, who had just offered a traveler a night's rest in their out-of-the-way hut. "I'll put him in with you and Jack and Sue and Kate and Bet, I suppose," was the reply, "and if it is too crowded one of you must turn in with me and dad and Dick and Tom, and the twins."

Upon the cliffs south of Fort Point [illegible] covered outworks are being constructed 150 feet above the shore. These works are to bear twenty five heavy cannon pointing to the west out to sea, while thirteen massive bomb proofs will serve to shelter men and ammunition from the enemy's bombardment.

The School Fund Steal Again

From the Statesman of Wednesday.

A short time ago the Herald made the following positive and reckless statement in relation to the matter of the Wallamet Falls Canal and Lock improvement:

No Company ever offered to do such a [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] instruction at the [illegible] [illegible] the Wallamet [illegible] [illegible] the sum of one hundred and twenty five thousand dollars.

We immediately published the offer made in writing by the P T Company to do exactly the same work [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] then having nothing better [illegible] Company did make the offer, and that the Herald had ignorantly or willfully made a false statement. A full statement after the proof has been made we may just as well go through the matter at once and show the Herald and Gov Grover's misrepresentation right through. The affidavit hereto attached of the facts made by Mr A A McCully, President of the People's Transportation Company. It destroys all chance for equivocation for the future.

Asa A McCully of Salem, Oregon, being duly sworn deposes and says: That House Bill No 10, providing for the construction of locks around the Falls of the Wallamet and appropriating one hundred and twenty five thousand dollars, was drafted and submitted to several prominent members of both political parties. This bill was examined by Hon W F Alexander, who favored the proposition as against that of the Wallamet Falls Canal and Lock Co, and Hon George R Helm, both Democratic members of the House of Representatives, and after making sundry amendments thereto at the recommendation and request of Mr Alexander it was presented to the House by him on the 20th day of September 1870, he having at a former session introduced a similar bill favoring the P T Company.

The interviews had with Messrs Alexander and Helm were held at the office of the People's Transportation Company in Salem, and that at said interviews drawings and specifications with estimates in detail made from actual surveys by Geo H Belden, a practical civil engineer, were exhibited to and examined by them; that the bill thus prepared after its introduction in the House by Mr Alexander and upon its second reading was upon his own motion referred to a select committee of five, himself chairman, and although often requested and urged to report the same back to the House he failed to make any report, and as I verily believe never reported it but retained it in his possession.

When Senate Bill No 12, appropriating two hundred thousand dollars to the Wallamet Falls Canal and Lock Company, was before the House for consideration, the People's Transportation Company finding their bill thus referred and virtually defeated, made a direct proposition in writing proposing to construct locks around the Falls of the Wallamet of the same character under the same restrictions and provisions as is now provided for by law for the sum of one hundred and twenty five thousand dollars—seventy five thousand dollars less than was actually voted to the Wallamet Falls Canal and Lock Company. Or in other words proposed to the Legislature to take the same bill then pending in favor of the Canal and Lock Company and amend by striking out the name of the Wallamet Falls Canal and Lock Co wherever it occurred and insert People's Transportation Co, and to further amend by inserting one hundred and twenty five thousand dollars in place of two hundred thousand dollars, and allowing the locks to be constructed on the east instead of the west side. The P T Co had secured the right of way on the east side by purchase and also by ordinance of City Council of Oregon City, it being their intention at the time the right of way was obtained to construct locks within their own means. They also owned the undivided half of the west side franchise, which they subsequently sold to one of the stockholders of the Wallamet Falls Canal and Lock Co, that the right of way might be perfected. The People's Transportation Co further proposed in token of their sincerity and honesty of purpose to construct said locks according to the provisions of the bill (now the law) to enter into good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the Governor, in such sum as the Legislature might designate, to submit the same duly approved and accepted before the bill even passed or became a law.

ASA A McCULLY

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 16th day of April 1872.

SETH R HAMMER,

[Notarial Seal] Notary Public

Will the Herald persist further in its foolish and hardy denial of the charge that the Democratic Legislature corruptly stole and wasted $75,000 over and above the sum necessary to secure the Wallamet Falls Improvement? Will Grover continue to misrepresent the facts? If so we will continue this subject and bury them both so deep under proofs that they never will be believed again, though they should speak, by accident, what every body knows to be the truth.

The Tariff and Our Resources

As a fitting and complete answer of Mr Burnett's tirade on the tariff in his speech on Monday evening, we present the following extracts from remarks made by Mr Corbett in the Senate on the 26th March, when the tariff bill was under debate:

The woolen interest is in its infancy in the State which I have the honor in part to represent. Wool is now being produced in our State to a very great extent. This section proposes to reduce the duties ten per cent not only upon the article of wool but upon the manufactured article. So far as I am concerned this manufacture is of no personal interest to me. In fact, politically speaking, if I considered it in a political aspect, as the gentlemen who control these manufactures are principally Democrats it will be seen that I am not working for the interest of my political friends. It is therefore not a political question so far as I am concerned. I look at the matter in a practical point of view. It seems to me that we are reducing these duties to a greater extent than the manufacturers of the country can at this time bear.

We also have salt interests in our State, and if the duty was sufficient we could commence the manufacture of salt, but labor is too high there at present to enable us to do it. We hope in the future to develop these resources. We have also built furnaces for the manufacture of pig iron. I know that one company expended in one furnace $120,000 in gold, which is now lying idle. We have as rich mines perhaps as are in the world.

Mr Sherman. Is there a pig iron furnace in Oregon lying idle?

Mr Corbett. There is.

Mr Sherman. That is a very extraordinary thing, for the price of pig iron is higher now than it has been for years.

Mr Corbett. This is an extraordinary time. Notwithstanding the reduction of the duty on pig iron two years ago pig iron is higher now than it has been for a number of years, but our furnaces closed some two or three years ago. They attempted under the duty of nine dollars a ton to manufacture pig iron, but the English importers sent their pig iron into our market cheaper and drove our pig iron out of the market. We found we were unable to compete, and they sold at just about the price it cost us to produce the article. We hope in the future, provided we can retain the present duty, when labor shall have been reduced in price, to produce these articles.

We have immense coal fields in our State. These are being developed, and I have no doubt they will be developed to a still greater extent if properly protected. We have great interests to be developed in these hidden resources. We expect to be the New England of the West. We expect to manufacture all those articles that are needed on the Pacific coast. I feel therefore a deep interest on the part of the people I represent, and also for all those who are coming to our shores. We desire to establish manufactures. We desire to build up manufactures and thereby diversify our labor. The principal portion of our labor now is engaged in the production of cereals, and we are obliged to ship our grains abroad. We are obliged to ship our surplus to England and bring back in exchange her manufactured goods. This our people do not believe is for the best interests of the State. We believe that protecting these industries and [illegible] manufactures among ourselves tend [illegible] prosperity of our State. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] at [illegible] reduce the duties ten per cent at this time it seems to me will [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] these interests and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to the wool growing [illegible] [illegible] State. FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 19, 1872.

CITY.

[illegible].—The police of Portland have taken a step which will be commended by all good citizens and will, if well carried out, will result in greater security to the persons and property of the citizens of Portland than any measure yet taken by the Metropolitan force. We refer to the plan for enforcing the ordinance against vagrancy. For some time past petty larcenies, burglaries, etc., have been very numerous in the city, and many people have been afraid to leave their homes for even a few hours, lest some of the many night-prowlers should break in and steal whatever could be found and carry it off. No matter how diligent the search might have been, it was found impossible to trace these depredations to their source with that certainty which would justify the arrest of the guilty parties. Although police officers might be able to form a very correct opinion as to the class, they could procure no clue to the individuals who were the real criminals. In order more effectually to check these depredations, the police force have been ordered to arrest all persons found in the streets after ten o'clock at night, who are known to have no visible means of support, and who cannot give some reason for prowling around town habitually when employed men are in bed. Under this order four men were arrested on Wednesday night and tried before Police Judge Denny, who yesterday sentenced two of them to the city jail for ten days each. We feel confident that the action of Judge Denny will have a good moral effect, for if the ordinance is properly enforced it will leave no man who gets his living honestly, and the dishonest have no right to prey upon the substance of those of the community who have a due respect for the terms, "mine" and "thine."

[illegible] ALTERNATIVE.—Those two highly useful [illegible] of society, C. Hill and J. Watson, [illegible] were each sentenced to ten days' imprisonment in the city jail for vagrancy, by Judge Denny yesterday morning. These worthies were informed by the keeper of the chain-gang, Chas Lawrence, a few hours after their incarceration, that their services were required on the streets in the capacity of "mud-scrapers." They concluded that that was a piece of unparalleled "cheek" on the part of [illegible] to ask gentlemen of their standing [illegible] such menial service for the city. He was coolly informed that work wasn't exactly in their line; that it wasn't their forte—and what was still more, they did'nt propose to make it so. "Very well then, gentlemen," said Lawrence, "you can take the other alternative. Rich or poor, it is not healthful for gentlemen of leisure to be idle, so you can practice a little on bread and water." Although that kind of fare wasn't [illegible] in their line," they concluded they would try it in preference to handling a scraper with an iron ornament attached to their ankles. [illegible] they will find dry bread and damp water [illegible] sustenance for ten days. Served the [illegible] right.

[illegible], ANY WAY.—Some persons are such [illegible] growlers, that come what will, they [illegible]. While we are dwelling on the theme of fault-finders, we can call to memory a certain morning cotemporary who never receives its "mails regularly." Of course all this matter of "irregularity" is directly chargeable to the Mail Agent. If an exchange fails to reach that paper within fifteen minutes of the time when it should this same Agent who is so derelict in his official duties, ought to come down at once and straighten things out. If he should do that he might possibly cure that paper of its chronic disease of fault-finding. We are living in a fast age; and when Eastern mails are received in ten days after their dates, and California papers within two days, any reasonable mind ought to be satisfied if a few delays occur that are positively unavoidable, and which no human power can avert. [illegible] has much to do with these matters of "mail irregularities."

NEW WORK.—Dr. J. H. Wythe, for three years a member of the Oregon Methodist Episcopal Conference, and a year pastor of the Taylor Street Church, has recently issued a work entitled "[illegible] of Science and Revelation." After careful perusal of its contents, the editor of the Advocate says: "This is a first class book, issued in the best style of the publishers. Those who sat under his ministry, or were acquainted with the former productions of his prolific pen, will conclude that the present volume is one of profound learning, deep research and able argument. We believe this work will supply a want long felt, not only by the readers of scientific works, but also by Christian ministers and people, and as such we take pleasure in recommending it to all."

RUNAWAY.—Last evening the team attached to a [illegible] wagon took fright and ran away in the upper portion of the city. One of the hotel coaches happened to be in the way, and a slight collision ensued. Not so slight, after all, as the coach [illegible] "second best," and some fragments of the wagon were left behind, not being able to keep up with the furious speed of the frightened team. The incident gave birth to this paragraph. I will also give a wagon and harness the job of repairing.

[illegible] EASTERN OREGON.—A large band of cattle, numbering some three hundred, belonging to [illegible] Emery and John Folly, started for the [illegible] this morning. The owners intend taking them to Butter Creek, Umatilla county, where they have already a large number. Other bands of stock will follow in a few days for the same locality, and the evidences go to show that the grazing lands east of the Cascade Mountains are soon to be put into use and made profitable and wealth-producing. So says the Era.

CROPS IN WASHINGTON COUNTY.—The amount of grain, as we are informed, sown in Washington county this year is less than heretofore. This is owing to the increased number of acres of fall grain sown during the favorable weather in the early portion of last winter. Crops in that section [illegible], and the coming harvest is expected to be a large one.

CLOSING EXERCISES.—Yesterday being the last day of the present term of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary, the pupils of the institution gave an entertainment at the Academy in the [illegible]. The exercises consisted of declamations, [illegible], singing and music. T. F. Royal is the principal, and is assisted by an efficient corps of assistants.

[illegible] STREET SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The following is the quarterly report of the condition of the [illegible] Street Sunday School: Aggregate attendance the past quarter, 1,062; average, [illegible]; number of officers and teachers, 12; number of classes, 10; aggregate attendance, infant classes, [illegible]; average attendance, infant classes, 17.

CLACKAMAS BRIDGE.—The old bridge across the Clackamas, which was washed away last winter by the high water, is lodged on the Columbia, just above Kalama. Should any of the enterprising citizens of that county desire to recover it, they will know where to look.

TAXES.—The delinquent tax roll is now open at the Sheriff's office. Delinquents will be allowed until the first of next month to come forward and settle. After that time the property will be advertised for sale. Costs then will begin to accrue [illegible].

PERSONAL.—Wm. S. Norris, Esq., the Vice President of the North Pacific Transportation Company, and one of the Trustees of the Deed of Trust and First Mortgage Bonds of the Oregon and California railroad, and Oregon Central Railroad, is now in the city.

BADLY INJURED.—One of the men employed at the saw-mill on the eastern side of the river below the foot of U street, ventured his hand too near a circular saw the other day. He now mourns for two fingers and carries a bandaged hand.

ACROSS THE CLACKAMAS.—A ferry boat is being built to take the place of the bridge over the Clackamas river, which was washed away last winter during the freshet. It will be ready to accommodate travel early next week.

TO THE FRONT.—Mr. Holladay and Wm. S. Norris, the Vice President of the North Pacific Transportation Company, went to the front yesterday on the west side road.

NEW CARS.—During the past week some eight or ten new gravel cars have been turned out at the railroad company's shops, near East Portland.

RAISING.—Efforts were being made yesterday to raise the fragments of boiler and machinery belonging to the steamer [illegible].

MASQUERADE CARNIVAL.

Last evening, after many weeks of preparation, the Second Grand Carnival at the Skating Rink took place. Although the weather was unpropitious, the large building was crowded in every part. No expense seemed to have been spared by those who assumed the characters. Many dresses were made of the most elegant materials, and some who did not feel disposed to wear fine fabrics appeared in costumes which created enough amusement to entertain the large assemblage in attendance. Corliss' Full Brass Band lent spirit to the interesting scene. Without further comment, we append a partial list of characters:

Miss M. Th—n, "O[illegible]," Minnie P—n, "Turkish Girl," Miss J. My—k, "Goddess of Fortune," Mrs. C. P. F—y, "Dolly Varden," Miss Esther C—l, "Spanish Girl," Miss Lilly Th—n, "Italian Girl," Miss E. Mu—et, "Lydia Thompson," Miss Hattie B—n, "Daughter of the Regiment," Miss N. D—e, "Star of the Evening," Miss Louisa V—n, "Polish Girl," Miss S—n, "Vivandiere," Miss S. C—d, "Shepherdess," J. H. D—n, "Grizzly Bear," Thomas B—ton, "Fireman," Charles M—d and Ed. L—y, "Flying Horsemen," James G—th, "Esquimaux," Frank Th—n, "Newsboy," A. E. W—k, "Captain Kidd," Phil D—s, "Snowflake," W. A. H—t, "Girl of the Period," Henry Th—n, "The Press," Sy. My—k, "Topsy," Jimmy McCraken, "Italian Bandit," J. E. S—rs, "Mat Medus," M. D., "[illegible] of the Period," Geo. L. C—y and H. W. T—n, "Highlanders," Walter T—r, "Chinamen," Dan F—r, "Venitian Scholar," Seth P—e, "Navy Officer," J. My—k, "Yankee Locke," Ralph M—d and George G—d, "Continentals," A. Sh—n, "Pluto," W. J. P—gw, "Court Page," C. P. F—y, "Dinah," Wm. P—rs, "Sailor," H. Mc—Fr—n, "Colonel," Will W—rn, "Zouave," Chas. D. F—g, "Spanish Cavalier," and many others whose names and characters, owing to the lateness of the hour, we are unable to furnish our readers. The affair was certainly the most brilliant of the kind yet presented to our citizens.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The masquerade is over at last.

Something new—river is falling.

Dr. Fowler is now in San Francisco.

Farmers are beginning to flock to town.

Total obscurity reigns—about the city clock.

Real estate is looming up again. Read the transactions.

Manager Waldron will take a benefit on next Tuesday evening.

The next steamer from San Francisco will sail on Saturday next.

The most entertaining place to spend a spare hour is at the Library.

Chas. St. Louis, late of this city, has opened a jewelry store in Eugene.

Reports of a German paper being started in Portland in a short time.

Straw hats and linen coats are making a modest appearance on the streets.

Some one has said, "Jacksonville is looking up." That's a good word.

War to the hilt has been declared against vagrants and night prowlers.

Portland has two kinds of gas—one is perfectly harmless and doesn't illuminate.

Picnics will soon be in order among those who delight in "tripping the light fantastic."

A big crowd appeared at the Salem depot to meet Judge Wilson. The Salem Brass Band was present.

A vendor of the lacteal fluid has been grieving over more "spilt milk." His team ran away the other day.

Eastern Oregon is furnishing large numbers of horses and mules for Northern Pacific Railroad contractors.

At his shop Capt. Mills has on exhibition some of the most beautiful specimens of graining we have yet seen. It is worth while to drop in to see the work.

We have heard of several sales of real estate within the past few days. There is an increasing activity in the market.

Misconnection relieved the mail agent of the O. & C. R. R. yesterday. The mail arriving at our post consequently light.

"Isms" will be the subject of T. G. Murphy's lecture in this city on Saturday evening. There is plenty of them to "go for."

The theatrical season at Oro Fino Theater will soon close. Manager Waldron's intentions are to open a short season in Victoria.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN, enlarged number this week, in wrappers, ready for mailing to friends in the East at business office counter.

Those fellows who "vagrantize" about the city can find good steady employment down the river. Come, clear out and give us more fresh air.

A juvenile masquerade party was given the other evening. It was a delectable occasion—to those who took no hand in the affair.

The hackmen's cry "This way to the ——," is now heard at the corner of Stark and Fourth streets on the arrival of the morning train.

A drunken beast, which assumed the form of a man, fell from the top of a long staircase the other evening—result, a bandaged head and accommodations at the tax payers' expense.

EAST PORTLAND MATTERS.

[From the Era.]

Work on the cut through Tibbet's Addition to East Portland has been commenced, and a large force of workmen are now engaged in grading, leveling and otherwise preparing to lay the ties and rails. It is thought that but a short time will elapse before the new track will be laid, and then the distance between this city and the car shops of the Oregon and California Railroad Co. will be materially shortened.

During the past few weeks, work on Second street has been pushed very rapidly forward, and it is very evident that the contracting parties will come up with the terms of contract between themselves and the city, and finish it by the prescribed time. When this street is completed, the erection of several buildings on a line with it will begin immediately.

From the number of car loads of railroad iron being daily sent to the front from the depot, we judge that work on the road is being pushed forward at a rapid rate. Hardly a day passes but a long train of cars thus loaded leave this city bound south.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The following proceedings of the Circuit Court for Columbia county, have been sent us from St. Helens:

Bennett vs. Dunbar; case continued for service to next term. Bybee for plaintiff.

Bennett vs. F. Williams; motion for leave for execution to issue; demurrer to motion overruled. Bybee for plaintiff, Lancaster and Wait for defendant.

State of Oregon vs. James Crim; larceny, arraigned and allowed until Wednesday to plead.

Foster vs. McNully. Parson and Williams, action on account, verdict of jury, $67 75.

Giltner vs. Caples; action on account; on trial.

ANOTHER CLUB.—An organization called the Union Club, we learn, was formed in this city last night. The following officers were elected: James Dwyer, President; M. McGuire, Vice President; Charles Seymour, Secretary, and John Sinclair, Treasurer. As to the objects of this Club we are not informed.

A HOLIDAY.—The pupils of the Harrison-street school, under the charge of their excellent teacher, Mr. Pratt, enjoyed a holiday yesterday. The day was very pleasant, and the children, to the number of nearly 300, went up on Robinson's Hill and spent the time very joyously.

GRADING.—Grading has been commenced on the line of railroad beyond Cornelius. It is expected to commence to lay the track by the first of July.

THE UMATILLA HOUSE at The Dalles is now complete and [illegible] in every respect [illegible]. The [illegible] is the [illegible] and pleasant [illegible] in the State, and the [illegible]. The [illegible] has twelve [illegible] stores in front [illegible]. The new house [illegible] higher than the old one. [illegible] higher, which adds greatly to the [illegible]. The table is kept in a style to [illegible] with the appointments.

IT IS UNIVERSALLY ADMITTED THAT THE DOWNER Kerosene Oil is the highest grade in the market and it is [illegible] that after an examination [illegible] samples of Coal Oil by Prof. Price, in the interest of the Insurance Companies, Downer's Kerosene was [illegible] the best and safest of all. For sale by all dealers, and at the Oil House of F. B. Taylor & Co., [illegible] Front street, between California and Pine, San Francisco, [illegible] 1862, General Agents, Pacific coast.

LITERARY AND MUSICAL.

The music and readings at the Unitarian Chapel on Wednesday evening, attracted a good audience who appeared well pleased with the entertainment and themselves.

An "Instrumental Trio" was a perfect concord of sweet sounds long drawn out.

"Gathering Home" was a solo; the solo was rather weak and uncertain, but the bass in the chorus delivered some round, sweet notes.

"The Sexton and Thermometer," a mock heroic poem of many stanzas, occupied the platform some time and was pronounced in a first rate sepulchral style.

The Duet, "Our Shepherd Pipes and Rustic Bells," was animated and correct.

The "Ballad of the Battle of New Orleans," was declaimed most superbly and dramatically, but the encore—"The Yankee Courtship"—was a step from the sublime to the ridiculous that sounded like mockery of the first.

An "Instrumental Duet," was fine and fanciful.

The "Wife's Appeal," as usual, was well done. The tone and manner were a success, elegant and effective. It had an encore, but respectfully declined on the ground of poor light, and that the print was finer than it used to be. (Tempus Fugit.)

The Duet—"Speed Away"—was done by a brace of well gaited tenors, who went in double harness to a dot. The encore was something about the "Mountain Tree," with a decided accent on the last syllable.

The reading and acting of "Hans Breitmann's election," was only a success.

The Solo—"He'll come no more"—had no encore, and the "Merry Mountaineers," by the male quartette, filled the happy hearts and ears of the whole parquette.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

PERSONAL, LOCAL AND GENERAL.

[From the Advocate.]

Rev. J. Hoberg sends us a note from Hillsboro under date of the 11th, saying: "We have now flourishing Sunday schools under way; one at Hillsboro, already noticed; one at Columbia Academy, D. O. Quick, Superintendent, C. R. Cora, Assistant Superintendent, and Delitia Hoover, Secretary; one at Forest Grove, J. Hoberg, Superintendent; I. L. Smith, Assistant Superintendent, and C. G. Ebert, Secretary; one at Cornelius, J. R. Spencer, Superintendent, T. R. Cornelius, Assistant Superintendent, and Mrs. R. R. Geiger, Secretary.

Rev. A. Myers having returned from the East will occupy the pulpit at the Evangelical Lutheran Church, corner Fifth and Taylor streets, on Sabbath morning and evening next. Rev. J. P. Weaver is expected to be present on the following Sabbath and enter upon his duties as pastor.

Rev. A. E. Fredrichsen will preach in the Norwegian language at the Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran Church, East Portland, on Sabbath morning next at 11 o'clock. English service as usual at 2 o'clock P. M. The public is respectfully invited to attend. A business meeting will be held on the 19th of April at 7 o'clock P. M., at the vestry, for the purpose of electing Trustees of the Church.

At the close of an appropriate sermon at the Taylor street M. E. Church on Sabbath morning last by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Izer, a collection was taken up in behalf of the Church Extension Society of the M. E. Church, amounting to the handsome sum of $151.

AMUSEMENTS.

PHILHARMONIC HALL.—This hall was well filled last evening on the occasion of the lecture of S. J. McCormick, Esq. The subject of the lecture was "The Superstitions of Ireland, Their Beauty and Origin." The lecture was delivered in Mr. McCormick's usual interesting and pleasing manner. During the evening he introduced several appropriate Irish songs. The ballads "Land of the West," "Angel's Whisper," "Fairy Boy" and "The Irishman's Dreams," were rendered in his most felicitous style. The lecture was a most decided success in all respects.

"LADY OF LYONS."—This great and favorite play of Bulwer, was rendered last evening at Oro Fino Theater to a sparse house. The piece was most excellently rendered. Mrs. Waldron's "Pauline" was a real pleasing piece of acting, although possessing some defects in style and intensity. We can not refrain from paying Mr. Waldron the compliment of saying that we consider his "Claude Melnot" the best rendition of that character we have seen on the stage in this city. His impersonation of that character alone would stamp him as an actor of no ordinary ability.

MISS PIXLEY'S BENEFIT.—Miss Minnie Pixley will be tendered a complimentary benefit this evening by Manager Waldron. Miss Minnie has won a place in the hearts of this public, and is one of the old favorites. No comments are necessary. She deserves a crowded house, and we do not overrate the estimate in which she is held to predict that a very handsome benefit will be accorded her this evening. A good bill is offered—"The Octoroon."

SOCIABLE.—The Sociable to be given by the members of Multnomah Lodge, I. O. G. T., this evening, in their hall, corner of Front and Alder streets, promises to be a grand affair. All friends of temperance are cordially invited. Admission free.

Diseased Digestion.

If chronic indigestion affected the stomach only it might be more easily borne, but it gives rise inevitably to many other diseases affecting the liver, the nerves, the bowels and the brain. Biliousness, nervous tremors, constipation, headache and terrible mental disturbances are among its usual accompaniments. In fact, every organ, every fibre of the frame sympathizes with the debilitated and diseased stomach. What is needed in such a case? Clearly an alterative and invigorant. And among medicines of that class Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is, beyond all comparison or estimate, the best. Mere purgatives only deprive the system of the little strength that disease has left it. Saltrants have the same effect. The whole internal organism has gone wrong, and can only be put right and kept so by a medicine in which the tonic and stimulating effects predominate, but are qualified and modified by such bilious aperients and blood purifying components. Now, the truth is (and the medical faculty as well as the public know the fact), that Hostetter's Bitters contain every ingredient requisite for the cure of dyspepsia and all the ailments of body and mind which it involves. This has been proved in so many thousands of instances that it seems almost idle to repeat the statement.

The great tonic rallies exhausted nature, from whatever cause enfeebled, and permanently recruits the vigor of the nerves, the muscles and the brain. Its effect upon the brain is to give strength to the will and precision to the judgment, and to banish despondency and that infirmity of purpose which generally accompanies bodily weakness.

Moral Philosophy.

It iz better tew leap one rod, and strike on your feet, than tew leap two rod and strike on your hed. This is a well-known fact.

The only human bein on the face ov this earth that I really envy is a laughing christian.

Thare are two kind ov men that I don't kare to meet when I am in a great hurry, men that I owe, and men that want to owe me.

Thare are folks who don't do enny hard work but watch their symptoms. I have seen a dog akt just so setentive. I hav seen a tarrier watch the symptoms ov a knot hole in a board fence all day for some rat to poke forth, and no rat didn't cum forth.

You will allwus notis one thing, the devil never offers to go into partnership with a bizzy man, but you will often see him offer to join the lazy and furnish all the capital.

Hope haz made a great many blunders, but thare iz one thing about her that I alwus did lik, she means well.

Most enny boddy thinks he kan keep a good hotel, and he kan, but this akounts for the great number of kussid mean ones all over the country.

Convince a phool ov hiz errors and you make him your enemy.

A man whom yu kan hire tew work on a farm for nothing and board himself will just about earn hiz wages.

The highest rate ov interest that we pay iz for borrowed trouble. Things that are alwus a going tew happen never do happen.

Face all things; even adversity iz polite to a man's face.

Whenever I see a man anxious tew get into the middle of a fite that don't belong tew him, I am alwus anxious tew hav him, for I kno he iz sure tew be the wurst whipt man in the party.

Thare ain't but phew men weak enuff tew admit their jealousys; even a disgraced rooster in a barn yard will git a leetle further off and begin tew crow up a new reputashun.

Deth iz an arrow shot into a kroud, the only rezon whi it hit another iz bekause it missed us.

Arly genius iz like arly cabbage; it ain't apt tew hed well.

A man with a phew brames iz like a dog with one flea on him—dreadful oneazy.

Used Him Up.—The Statesman of yesterday says that in his reply to Burnett when the two spoke at Salem, Judge Wilson "handled his opponent as a cat would dally with a helpless mouse and tossed and cuffed him unmercifully. He fairly flayed him on the New Departurism of the party, skinned him on State rights; basted him on the tariff; roasted him on the public debt; carved him on the Democratic platform; served him up with sauce on the habeas corpus, trial by jury, taxation etc.; rattled his bones on the railroad question, proving by persons in the audience that the Hon. John dared not to stick to his Portland declaration against aid to railroads in Oregon; and then hung the man's skeleton up to whistle in the wind on the questions of the school fund steal and the general corruption of the last Legislature. His conclusion on the Democratic situation was scathing and torturing to poor Hon. John. The Judge was applauded throughout his speech, and at the close the shouts, stamping of feet and clapping of hands was deafening. The meeting was a rousing triumph for the Judge and the Republican party. It can be confidently stated that Hon. John is getting discouraged.

Fourteen Hundred Dollars Lost by One Drink.—A sad tale comes from Selma, New York. It appears that twelve young men of that city "swore off" on New Year's day, 1871, and agreed to deposit with one of their number, on the first day of each month, $10, each, the total to be divided among the members of the association who on the first of January, 1872, should prove to have been faithful to their pledge. One by one the members backslid and yielded to the liquor temptation, and only a single individual was left, who at noon on New Year's day was to receive $1,400. This Abdiel, faithful found among the faithless, proceeded to the rendezvous at the appointed hour. He waited until ten minutes after noon, and then thought he would run into the saloon next door and get a nip. He had just swallowed it when ten of the other members entered to take their noonday Angostura, and he found to his horror that his watch was twenty minutes too fast, and the money was lost. The eleven therefore proceeded to the residence of the Treasurer, and found that he had lost all the money playing draw poker with one of the church trustees. The sad occurrence has cast a gloom over the whole community.

Pat had worked two years upon the Central Pacific road, and applied at Ogden for a pass over it home. "I can't give you a pass," said the Superintendent. "You have no ground to claim it." "And haven't I worked two years on the road?" said Pat. "Yes, but haven't we paid you for it?" "Sure, your honor, you have; but after working two years on it you ought to let me go home free." "I cannot do that, sir. Why, look at the case. Suppose you had worked for a farmer for two years and he had paid you every cent due you, could you ask him to harness up his team and take you a long distance for nothing?" "Oh, no, your honor," said Pat, "but if he had his team already hitched up and it had to go any way, as yours does, he would let me ride, I know he would." Pat got his pass.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Thursday Evening, April 18, 1872.

Gold in New York, 111¼.

Greenbacks, 90c buying and 91c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool, on the 18th, 11s 7d@11s 8d.

The bark Almatia sailed for Portland Wednesday from San Francisco with a large assorted cargo of merchandise.

The volume of trade this week in some lines is somewhat more limited than last. Calls for Agricultural Implements and Machinery are beginning to be freer. Below will be found revised price lists for this week from the two leading houses. In Dry Goods there is some activity and prices have an upward tendency. Hardware, prices continue to harden, and another slight advance in Iron is noted. Other metals have advanced in sympathy with Iron. On Copper and Brass the advance is 15 per cent. Boots and Shoes, stocks full and trade fair. Groceries, call active and stocks sufficient for all demands. There is lack of assorted grades of Hawaiian Sugars. Oregon Woolen Goods are without change, but prices are very firm, with prospect of an advance.

Remittances of money from the interior are lighter than have been anticipated. It was supposed that the large distribution of coin for country produce, and disbursements on account of the railroads, would shortly make money freer here, but the scarcity is unusual and embarrassing.

All kinds of Canned Goods have advanced about 50c ₱ dozen. This is partly in consequence of the increased cost of tin.

Considerable quantities of Flour, Grain and Mill Feed have been shipped from Walla Walla to this place during the last month.

All indications continue favorable for very large crops this year throughout all the agricultural districts of Oregon and Washington Territory. Good weather in early Spring enabled farmers to plow and sow, and the moist, warm atmosphere since that time has been very favorable for growth. A very large acreage is reported, especially throughout the Willamette valley. From present indications the prices of last year cannot be expected, but this decline (should it occur) will probably be to some extent compensated by the increased yield.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 27, 1872.

The Union Republican Party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies.

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance, to its authority a willing obedience; to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, forming and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We regard the payment of our national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question at issue, but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities, but positive crimes, and we will never consent to adoption of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth; and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion; and we here pledge the full and effective protection of our civil laws to all persons voluntarily coming to or residing in our land.

5. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interest of the whole country, and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages, to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7. We believe that popular education is the sole true basis and hope of a free government, and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State for any other than their legitimate purpose, and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy-five thousand dollars less, and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to this State have been taken from the needy settlers, and given without limit or proper competition in price to the land grabber and speculator, whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites, and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their police authority. And we equally condemn the administration of our State officers and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all these results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. We are in favor of the United States giving to each honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands.

10. That we demand the repeal of the so called litigant act, which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and from Jackson county to Humboldt, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12. That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof, having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to seriously increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognizes the right and duty of the law-making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale, as far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles, recognizing this as a most important and necessary improvement for the State.

14. We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party is the only sure preservation of national peace and prosperity, and for reasons therefor we point to its brilliant record in the late civil war to a complete nationality; to a united sisterhood of thirty-seven States; to our Territories rapidly warming into State life, to a nation freed from the taint of human slavery, to an elevated and enlarged citizenship, to our national standing at home and abroad, to the work of vigorous reform in all discovered abuses of authority or trust, to an unequaled foreign credit, to a successful and sound financial system, and to the unparalleled peace and prosperity everywhere in our broad domain, and these are our pledges for the future.

15. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their conventions in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years, and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who will [illegible] you, to certification, dope the unwary [illegible] of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and [illegible] the work of their trades. Some are [illegible] office keepers, [illegible] newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, [illegible] cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting [illegible], certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. [illegible] Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
